Guideline For Writing the Project Report:

The project report should include the following:

(a) Abstract in 500-1000 words:

An abstract is an overview or a brief summary of project work, which helps the reader to ascertain the purpose of carrying the project work. It acts as a stand-alone entity for the complete project work.

(b) Study hypotheses (null or alternative hypotheses, if applicable)

(c) Literature Review:

Literature review (secondary sources) is the evaluation of substantive findings and theoretical and methodological contribution to a particular topic. It is a critical analysis of the previous research conducted in a particular area.

(d) Research methodology:

Research methodology is the implementation of methods or techniques to efficiently solve a research problem, which helps the reader to assess the validity and reliability of the study.

Research methodology constitutes of:

- Research Design: Descriptive, Conclusive, Causal or Exploratory
- Sampling Technique: Probability or Non-Probability
- Data Collection: Tools used for data collection (for eg: questionnaire, survey, etc)
- Data Preparation: Classification and Tabulation of data
- Data Analysis: Hypotheses Testing

(e) Results (theoretical or empirical):

The findings of the study are to be summarized as:

- Data interpretation: Interpret and elaborate findings of the research
- Recommendation: Suggestions based on critical analysis of the results

(f) Implications of theory and practice:

- The total size of the project document should not exceed 2MB. Portable document format (.pdf) only.
- Figures, graphs, tables, Appendices and References should follow the American Psychological Association (APA) Style guide, 7th edition.
- Mention the sources of any images, tables, figures cited or presented.
- Include a page header known as "running head at the top of every page.
- Use Font: Times New Roman; Font size: 12; Double-spaced; 1-inch (2.5cm) margin all around.
- Use American spellings ('program' not 'programme'; 'center' and not 'centre'.
- Use "z" spellings instead of "s" spellings (recognize, organize, summarize).

7. Project Submission:

Project submission will be considered complete only if you complete the following three stages:

(i) Submission of Abstract along with Guide Resume

(ii) Submission of Project Report along with Plagiarism Report

(iii) Submission to Answer all Viva Questions

8. Viva Submission:

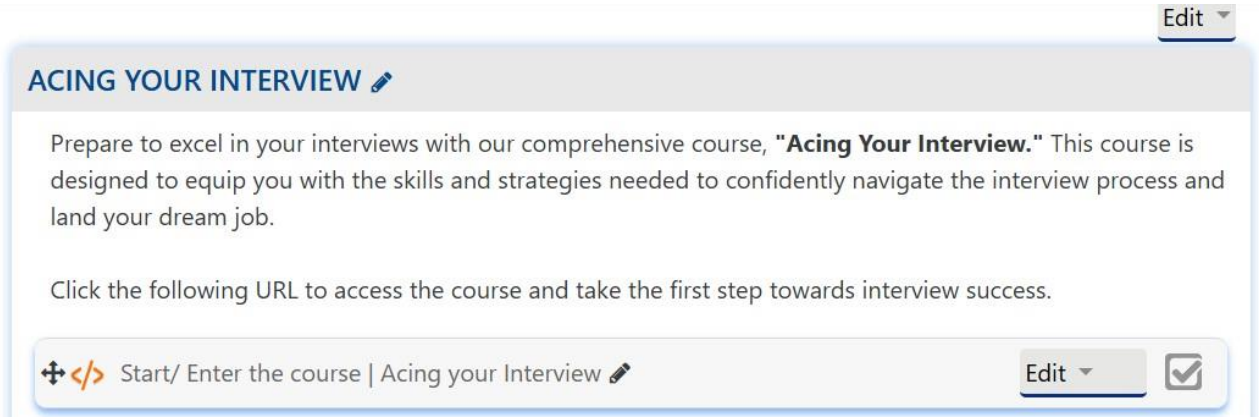

Viva will be conducted in two parts. It is mandatory for the student to attempt both the parts:

Part 1: To be submitted along with the project report.

- ✓ Viva Questions will include 5 descriptive questions related to your specific project.
- ✓ Viva questions are mandatory for the final project submission.
